

We have an exciting career opportunity in the Hotel and Tourism industry to fill positions in Reservations.

Our client is looking for customer orientated, dynamic and flexible individuals who are keen to take on a challenge and is driven by success. You will be responsible for liaising with potential guests, travel agents, and referral networks concerning reservations communicated through various means. The position offers a stimulating career for graduates or seasoned professionals.

A degree / relevant qualification in Tourism or related field will be an added advantage plus a minimum of 1-2 years` experience. Demonstrated background knowledge of working in the tourism industry. Experience working in reservations would be advantageous. In addition, you should be self-driven, take pride in your work, be passionate and derive personal satisfaction from accomplishing results. Kindly forward your motivation letter and CV to: Bradley@potentia.com.na by Friday, 20 July, 2018.

www.potentia.com.na

